EXPERIENCE

The gloves will be off for England's Southern Hemisphere challengers when Argentina and New Zealand visit Twickenham in the autumn.

The Autumn fixtures promise plenty of compelling action and passion on the field, as well as a superb occasion off it.

Mike Burton's hospitality packages for the 2009 Autumn International Series match the gravity of these games and are designed to provide the very best in corporate entertainment.

Argentina are now one of the top ranked sides in the world and bring with them some of the game's biggest names.

New Zealand will be out to continue where they left off last season and accelerate their long term plans in the lead up to the next Rugby World Cup.

It all adds up to a Twickenham test series that's not to be missed.

ENGLAND v ARGENTINA

SATURDAY 14 NOVEMBER 2009

The clash with Argentina is now becoming one of the hottest test match clashes as Argentina's stars want to build on their superb showing at Rugby World Cup 2007. Always a terrific spectacle, the Argentine line-up will seize their chance to shine on the international stage once more.

ENGLAND v NEW ZEALAND

SATURDAY 21 NOVEMBER 2009

A formidable force in world rugby with a winning record against every international rugby team, the All Blacks are fast, physical and ferociously competitive. Following a poor showing by their own high standards in Rugby World Cup 2007, New Zealand are now back to their best and will be desperate to continue their recent good run of form at Twickenham.

The surface is divided into three distinct color and texture regions: a dark, almost black area on the left with a fine, pebbled texture; a bright red diagonal band in the center with a similar pebbled texture; and a light gray or off-white area on the right with a smoother, more uniform texture. The lighting is soft, highlighting the tactile qualities of the materials.

IMAGINE

Exclusive hospitality suites and officially reserved seats for the largest annual rugby tournament in the world – the RBS 6 Nations Championship.
A great way to entertain.

The Mike Burton company's pioneering approach to corporate hospitality means that you and your guests will experience all the thrills, action and glory of the RBS 6 Nations Championship 2010 as part of an unforgettable day's entertainment.

The atmosphere is electric and the stakes are high. With the possibility of the Triple Crown or Grand Slam, every game is as individual as it is gripping. And with Mike Burton, you know you'll be in good company.

ENGLAND v WALES

SATURDAY 6 FEBRUARY 2010

Wales were the Grand Slam champions in 2008 and lost the title in the last minute of last season's Championship. Their journey to Twickenham is always one of the hottest tickets around and they have firmly established themselves as a competitive force in world rugby. England can expect a ferocious and passionate challenge and must face up to the tradition and history that this fixture delivers.

ENGLAND v IRELAND

SATURDAY 27 FEBRUARY 2010

The 2009 Grand Slam champions will be making their way to Twickenham in 2010. The Anglo-Irish encounter is always a superb occasion with one of the best atmospheres. The 2010 fixture is set to be the best yet. The Irish will be confident after a superb year in 2009 and the English will be wanting to make up for the narrow loss in Dublin last season.

Mike Burton also offers superb hospitality at all of England's away international fixtures in the 2010 RBS 6 Nations Championship.

ITALY v ENGLAND ROME
SUNDAY 14 FEBRUARY 2010

Italy have established themselves as a competitive force in the RBS 6 Nations Championship in recent years. Hungry for their first win over England, and with confidence running high after recent narrow losses, the Azzurri will believe they can taste victory this time around. England can expect a ferocious and passionate challenge and must extinguish the Italian fire to avoid an upset. Taking place in Rome – the setting, the date and the game make it a superb weekend.

SCOTLAND v ENGLAND EDINBURGH
SATURDAY 13 MARCH 2010

Whenever the English travel to Murrayfield – it's a blistering encounter, and Scotland are sure to unleash their passionate best for this Calcutta Cup clash. Capable of beating anyone on their day, Scotland will relish the opportunity to spoil the party after their defeat at Twickenham last season. England will need an emphatic performance to overcome a motivated and well drilled Scottish team with a dogged defence and plenty of individual talent.

FRANCE v ENGLAND PARIS
SATURDAY 20 MARCH 2010

Renowned for their sensational performances but notoriously unpredictable RBS 6 Nations form, England travel to the home of 'Les Bleus' at the Stade de France in Paris in the last game on the last day of the 2010 tournament. The French side is packed with blistering pace and Gallic flair and England will have to be at their very best up front to stop the marauding French back row building momentum and releasing their scintillating backs in what promises to be an enthralling encounter.
